ASSENTED TO MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL DATE
AND ORDER REGARDING EXCLUDABLE DELAY

The defendant in this matter respectfully requests a continuance of the trial in this case that is currently scheduled for November 26, 2007. As reason therefore, defense counsel states that he had previously scheduled a vacation involving travel for the week of November 19, 2007. In addition, defense counsel is set to start a trial in the case of United States v. Robert Mittel-Carey, No. 05-10335-WGY, on December 3, 2007.

Defense counsel has discussed this request for a continuance of the trial date with Assistant United States Attorney Antoinette Leoney. She has expressed that she would not object to the granting of this continuance. In discussing potential dates with Ms. Leoney, defense counsel respectfully proposes that the trial be continued to a date in mid to late January of 2008. The defendant does not object to the exclusion of time for speedy trial purposes from September 25, 2007 to the new trial date in January of 2008.
